SECTION II: TEXTUAL PASSAGES

SET 2: Q. 2 TEXTUAL PASSAGES (20 Marks)

Q 1 A Read the following passage and complete the activities. (10 Marks)

A 1 Complete the following sentences. (02)

- i) My father provided first aid to -----
- ii) His two little twinkling eyes -----
- iii) My attention was fixed on -----
- iv) The mother langur sat on -----

I took the baby langur to our backyard and gently laid him on the floor inside the poultry coop. His body was full of deep bite marks and scratches. Blood was oozing from some of the wounds. The baby remained motionless. My father provided first aid to clean the wounds and stop the bleeding. I was relieved to find out that the baby was breathing, even though his breaths were shallow.

Splashes of cold water made the baby stir and after a few shaky attempts, he sat up. He was in state of shock and started trembling like a leaf in the wind. His two little twinkling eyes welled up with tears and he started to sob with a muffled cry - just like a human child would after experiencing trauma. I offered him a peeled banana which he accepted with his unsteady hand and began taking hesitant bites.

My attention was fixed on the revival of the baby langur. Suddenly, I had an uncanny feeling of being watched. I turned away from the coop and looked up. There sat the mother langur on our kitchen roof, watching every move I made. She simply sat there quietly, as if convinced that no harm was being done to her child.

A 2 Attempt the following:

(02)

A 3 Match the words in column A with their synonyms in column B. (02)

Q 1 A Read the following passage and complete the activities.

(10 Marks)

A 1 State whether the following statements are True or False. (02)

- i) The skill must be stronger than the will.
- ii) Setting goals has two valuable assets.
- iii) Champions are made in gyms.
- iv) We all have natural talents.

Champions aren't made in gyms. Champions are made from something they have deep inside them- a desire, a dream, a vision. They have to have the skill and the will. But the will must be stronger than the skill. Successful professionals thrive in the same manner. We all have natural talents. If we use that talent to set our goal in life, we can easily get success in life. We shall not achieve our goals if we do not take action to achieve them.

Setting goals has two valuable assets - a sense of originality and a stepping stone to illuminate the path. Goals put one at the helm of life; pursuing them acknowledges a better future situation. They help to steer a course of life rather than simply drifting along and letting things happen.

Setting goals may appear easy, but, for some, it is quite challenging. Fear of failure may be avoided in the absence of any goals. After all, one has to decide what one wants to achieve in the end. To accomplish goals, experts recommend a five step approach.

SMART goals are a methodology of thinking that helps people reach success. SMART stands for specific, measurable, achievable, realistic and time bound.

A1 Fill in the blanks.(02)

- i) The seagull he had not eaten-----
- ii) The sight of the food-----
- iii) His father was preening-----
- iv) His mother had picked up-----

The sun was now ascending the sky, blazing on his ledge that faced the south. He felt the heat because he had not eaten since the previous nightfall. He stepped slowly out to the brink of the ledge, and standing on one leg with the other leg hidden under his wing, he closed one eye, then the other, and pretended to be falling asleep. Still they took no notice of him. He saw his two brothers and his sister lying on the plateau dozing with their heads sunk into their necks. His father was preening the feathers on his white back. Only his mother was looking at him. She was standing on a little high humpon the plateau, her white breast thrust forward. Now and again, she tore at a piece of fish that lay at her feet and then scrapped each side of her beak on the rock. The sight of the food maddened him. How he loved to tear food that way, scrapping his beak now and again to whet it.

“Ga, ga, ga”, he cried begging her to bring him some food. “Gaw-col-ah”, she screamed back derisively. But he kept calling plaintively, and after a minute or so he uttered a joyful scream. His mother had picked up a piece of the fish and was flying across to him with it. He leaned out eagerly, tapping the rock with his feet, trying to get nearer to her as she flew across.

A 2 Arrange the events in proper sequence as per their occurrence.(02)

i) I am the hairdresser. Who am I?

iii) I am the owner of bank, who am I?

ii) I have a crooked leg, who am I?

iv) I am a customer, who am I?

Deep Chand who was cutting the hair of an elderly gentleman, was so startled that his hand shook and he nicked his customer's right ear. The customer yelped with pain and distress: pain, because of the cut and distress because of the awful news he had just heard. With one side of his neck still unshaven, he sped across the road to the general merchant's store where there was a telephone. He dialled Seth Govind Ram's number. The Seth was not at home. Where was he, then? The Seth was holidaying in Kashmir. Oh, was that so? The elderly gentleman did not believe it. He hurried back to the barber's shop and told Deep Chand: 'The bird has flown! Seth Govind Ram has left town. Definitely, it means a collapse.' And then he dashed out of the shop, making a beeline for his office and cheque book.

The news spread through the bazaar with the rapidity of forest fire. From the general merchant's it travelled to the shop, circulated amongst the customers, and then spread with them in various directions, to the betel-seller, the tailor, the free vendor, the jeweller, the beggar sitting on the pavement. Old Ganpat the beggar, had a crooked leg.

- a) ALS c) Cancer
- c) Alzheimer d) Schizophrenia

iv) According to Dr. Hawking, in the next millennium science will discover -----

- a) About human b) Secrets of water
- c) The core secrets of the universe d) About Moon

In spite of being considered Einstein’s equal in intelligence, Dr Hawking is a very humble man. A simple, down to earth man, he has authored many books dealing with his awesome ideas keeping a layman in mind. His writing is full of wit and humour. His style is so lucid that non-scientists can also understand him. His book, “A Brief History of Time” is one of the best selling books of our times.

On being asked, how he feels about having the dreadful ALS, Dr Hawking, the quintessence of optimism and hope, says, “Not very different from the rest. I try and lead as normal a life as possible, and not think about my condition or regret the things it prevents me from doing, which are not many.”

Dr Hawking firmly believes that in the next millennium, science will discover the core secrets of the universe, its origin, its history and maybe even predict its ultimate demise. Like Dr Hawking, there are many people who display exemplary courage in their lives. Let us salute all those brave people, who in spite of being disabled strive to do their best.

A 1 Complete the following sentences

(02)

- a) The World Heritage Committee meets-----
- b) To become World Heritage site there are-----
- c) Nomination files are reviewed by -----
- d) There are ----- selection criteria.

There are five steps in becoming a World Heritage Site, the first of which is for a country or State Party to take an inventory of its significant cultural and natural sites. This is called the Tentative List and it is important because nominations to the World Heritage List will not be considered unless the nominated site was first included on the Tentative List. Next, countries are then able to select sites from their Tentative Lists to be included on a Nomination File. The third step is a review of the Nomination File by two Advisory Bodies consisting of the International Council on Monuments and Sites and the World Conservation Union, who then make recommendations to the World Heritage Committee. The World Heritage Committee meets once a year to review these recommendations and decide which sites will be added to the World Heritage List. The final step in becoming a World Heritage Site is determining whether or not a nominated site meets at least one of ten selection criteria. If the site meets these criteria, it can then be inscribed on the World Heritage List. Once a site goes through this process and is chosen, it remains the property of the country on whose territory it sits, but it also becomes considered within the international community.

A 2 Complete the following flow - chart by choosing from the options given below to show how any site of any country can become a World Heritage Site.

A 1 State whether the following statements are right or wrong. Correct the wrong ones and rewrite them. (02 Marks)

- i) The scene of the beggar and the girl made Meena peep into her own life.
ii) The beggar became Meena's role model.
iii) Writer was feeling happy about the beggar and the young girl.
iv) The beggar and the young girl were playing in the room.

However, what I saw from my window surprised me. The beggar and the young girl were playing on the road because there was no traffic. They were laughing, clapping and screaming joyously, as if they were in paradise. Hunger and rain did not matter. They were totally drenched and totally happy. I envied their zest for life. 'That scene forced me to look at my own life. I realized I had so many comforts, none of which they had. But they had the most important of all assets, one which I lacked. They knew how to be happy with life as it was. I felt ashamed of myself. I even started to make a list of what I had and what I did not have. I found I had more to be grateful for than most people could imagine.

That day, I decided to change my attitude towards life, using the beggar as my role model.' After a long pause, I asked Meena how long it had taken her to change. 'Once this realization dawned', she said, 'it took me almost two years to put the change into effect. Now nothing matters. I am always happy. I find happiness in every small thing, in every situation and in every person.'

children by half. We have reduced the number of child labourers by a third. We have reduced child mortality and malnutrition, and we have prevented millions of child deaths. But, let us make no mistake, great challenges still remain.

Friends! The biggest challenge or biggest crisis knocking on the doors of humankind is fear and intolerance. We have utterly failed our children in imparting an education. An education that gives the meaning and objective of life. An education that gives a sense of global citizenship among the youth. I am afraid that the day is not very far away when the cumulative result of this failure, will culminate in an unprecedented violence, and that will be suicidal for humankind.

Rights, security, hope can only be restored through education. Young people like Malala ... I've started calling her my daughter Malala not just Malala ... So my daughter Malala and other daughters including Kayanats.. in fact.. two Kayanats, and Shazia, and the daughters from Africa, and from all over the world. They are rising up and choosing over violence, tolerance over extremism, and courage over fear.

- i) Nutrition has definitely been a neglected area in Indian sports.
ii) Indian population is 1.3 billion
iii) India won just 10 medals in the 2012 Olympics.
iv) Mary Kom usually fights in 51 kg. event.

Interviewer: India managed just 6 medals in the 2012 Olympics even though we are a nation of 1.3 billion people. Where do you think a change is required to help us win medals that are proportionate with our population?

Mary Kom: I think more and more people should take up sports as a full-time career if we want more gold medals. More corporates should come in and sponsor players so that the players don't have any financial pressure and can just focus on their games.

Interviewer: Do you think interest in boxing in India will ever go beyond the Olympics?

Mary Kom: Yes, I am sure that in a few years, boxing will be very popular among everyone in India, all year round.

Interviewer: How aware are Indian women of their nutritional requirements? Diet and nutrition must've been key factors in your conditioning for the Olympics. Do you think nutrition is a neglected area in Indian sports?

Mary Kom: The awareness is growing now among female athletes when it comes to nutritional requirements. Nutrition has definitely been a neglected area in Indian sports. I had to gain 3 kg since I had to fight in the 51kg event instead of the usual 48 kg that I fight in. So I had to focus on what to eat. I gained weight by eating the right kind of healthy food rather than bad saturated fats.

A Teenager's Prayer

Each day brings new beginnings,
Decisions I must make.
I am the only one to choose
The road that I will take.
I can choose to take the road of life,
That leads to great success
Or travel down the darkened road,
That leads to great distress.
Please open up my eyes, dear Lord,
That I might clearly see Help me stand for what is right,
Bring out the best in me. Help,
Lord, to just say "no" When temptation comes my way,
That I might keep my body clean
And fit for life each day.
When my teenage years are over,
I know that I will see
That life is lived its very best
With you walking next to me.

Basketful of Moonlight

O moon,
give me moonlight,
basketful or two baskets full,
with seeds of moonlight.
From the city to my village,
on the sides of the path
I want to sow many,
small, small moons of light.
The whole village goes to the city
daily to work.
It becomes dark on its way back as my village is quite far.
The route is tough and full of snakes and scorpions.
Neither bus nor cart plies.
When my father returns home.
I am asleep.
And he goes back early in the morning
while I am sleeping
O moon
give me a basketful of moonlight

on loan.
I want to light the dark route
so that my father returns early.
I too want to hear fairy tales and stories from him.
O moon,
give me a basketful of moonlight.
I want to sow seeds of moon
on the sides of the path

You Start Dying Slowly

If you do not travel,
If you do not read,
If you do not listen to the sounds of life,
If you do not appreciate yourself.
You start dying slowly...

When you kill your self-esteem;
When you do not let others help you.
You start dying slowly...

If you become a slave of your habits,
Walking everyday on the same paths...
If you do not change your routine,
If you do not wear different colours
Or you do not speak to those you don't know.
You start dying slowly...

If you avoid to feel passion
And their turbulent emotions;
Those which make your eyes glisten
And your heart beat fast.
You start dying slowly...

If you do not change your life when you are not satisfied with your job,
or with your love,
If you do not risk what is safe,
for the uncertain,
If you do not go after a dream,
If you do not allow yourself,
At least once in your lifetime,
To run away from sensible advice...

Q.3 (A) Read the following extract and do the given activities.

The Twins

In form and feature, face and limb,
I grew so like my brother,
That folks got taking me for him,
And each for one another.
It puzzled all our kith and kin,
It reached a fearful pitch;
For one of us was born a twin,
Yet not a soul knew which.
One day, to make the matter worse,
Before our names were fixed,
As we were being washed by nurse,
We got completely mixed;
And thus, you see, by fate's decree,
Or rather nurse's whim,
My brother John got christened me,
And I got christened him.

This fatal likeness even dogged
My footsteps, when at school,
And I was always getting flogged,
For John turned out a fool.
I put this question, fruitlessly,
To everyone I knew,
'What would you do, if you were me,
To prove that you, were you?'
Our close resemblance turned the tide

Of my domestic life,
For somehow, my intended bride
Became my brother's wife.
In fact, year after year the same
Absurd mistakes went on,
And when I died, the neighbours came
And buried brother John.

If ...

If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;
If you can think—and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools:

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
 And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
 And lose, and start again at your beginnings
 And never breathe a word about your loss;
 If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
 To serve your turn long after they are gone,
 And so hold on when there is nothing in you
 Except the Will which says to them: 'Hold on!'

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
 Or walk with Kings—nor lose the common touch,
 If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
 If all men count with you, but none too much;
 If you can fill the unforgiving minute
 With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
 Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
 And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening

Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.
My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near
Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.
He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.
The woods are lovely, dark and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

The World is Mine(Extract 1)

Today on a bus, I saw a lovely girl with silken hair
 I envied her, she seemed so gay, and I wished I was so fair
 When suddenly she rose to leave, I saw her hobble down the aisle
 She had one leg and wore a crutch, but as she passed –a smile
 O God forgive me when I whine
 I have two legs,the world is mine
 And then I stopped to buy some sweets, The lad who sold them had such charm
 I talked with him , he seemed so calm ,and if I were late, it would do no harm,
 And as I left he said to me “I thank you, you have been so kind”
 It’s nice to talk with folks like you. You see, I’m blind
 O God forgive me when I whine
 I have two eyes, the world is mine

 He stood and watched the others play; it seemed he knew not what to do
 I stopped a moment, then I said, why don’t you join the others dear”
 He looked ahead without a word, and then I knew he could not hear
 O God forgive me then I whine
 I have two ears, the world is mine
 With legs to take me where I’ll go
 With eyes to see the sunset’s glow
 With ears to hear what I would know
 O God forgive me when I whine
 I’m blessed; indeed, the world is mine

Pink City Jaipur was declared a World Heritage site by UNESCO. The decision was taken at the 43rd session of the UNESCO World Heritage Committee (WHC) in the historic city of Baku, Azerbaijan from June 30-July 2010. The fortified city of Jaipur, in India’s northwestern state of Rajasthan was founded in 1727 by Sawai jai Singh II. The walled city of Jaipur, known for its iconic architectural legacy and vibrant culture, made its entry into the UNESCO World Heritage site list, becoming the second city in the country after Ahmedabad. India had proposed the notification of Jaipur as an exceptional urban example in indigenous city planning, the Ministry of Culture said in a statement.

“Besides exemplary planning its iconic monuments such as the Govind Dev Temple, City Palace, Jantar Mantar, and Hawa Mahal excel in artistic and architectural craftsmanship of the period.”

UNESCO seeks to encourage the identification, protection and prevention of cultural and natural heritage around the world considered to be the outstanding value of humanity.

(02)

- a) Peacocks shed their tail feathers once.....
- b) The peacock is our.....
- c) The peacock, although a shy bird, dances.....
- d) The peacocks have a special place in our arts, songs,.....

The peacock is perhaps the most beautiful among male birds, with its long blue neck. Fan-shaped crest, and its gorgeous train or tail of feathers. Each feather ends in a half-moon or 'eye'. When raised, the tail spreads like a fan from which a thousand eyes seem to gaze. Ironically the female or peahen is a small, drab bird in comparison, without the sweeping train.

Peacocks shed their tail feathers once a year and grow new ones. People carefully these old feathers, which are then made into lovely fans and other decorative items.

The peacock, although a shy bird, dances in front of the peahens during courtship. He then struts before them showing off his many-coloured train.

The sight of rain clouds is another occasion for such display, perhaps to hail the arrival of rain after the long hot summer. The peacock's loudly strutting has also given rise to the commonly used phrases, proud as a peacock' and 'as vain as a peacock.

The peacock is our national bird. The peacocks have a special place in our arts, songs, dances, culture and stories.

A2 Verbal to Non-Verbal

Draw a tree diagram that contains the main points and important supporting details from the following text about the 'Laser'.

Laser is a device that amplifies light. A laser produces a thin intensive beam of light that can burn a hole in a diamond or carry the signals of different television pictures as the same time. There are three major kinds of lasers based on their light amplifying substance-solid lasers, gas lasers and liquid lasers. Solid lasers use a crystal, a glass or a semiconductor as the light-amplifying substance. Crystal lasers, Glass lasers, and Semiconductor lasers are different types of solid lasers. Gas lasers have a gas or a mixture of gases as their light-amplifying substance. Helium, neon, argon, ion and carbon dioxide lasers are the most widely used types of Gas lasers. Liquid lasers produce both bursts of light and continuous light. Liquid lasers that produce bursts of light use a flash tube as their source of power. Those that produce continuous light get their power from a gas laser.

Read the following extract carefully and prepare a Tree Diagram on Types of Cheese.

SAY CHEESE!

Once upon a time, an Arab trader was on a long journey through the desert. He has taken some milk under the saddle in an animal stomach. After some hours, the milk changed into solid white lumps. The animal stomach developed a coagulating enzyme called Rennet which eventually turned the milk into a cheese-like matter, and accidentally cheese was discovered. However, some claim that Sumerians knew how to make cheese from ancient times.

Everybody seems to like cheese and with the number of varieties available, there is certainly something to appeal to everyone. All cheese is made from animal milk (either cow's, goat's or sheep's). The cheeses are mainly classified as fresh or ripened.

The Fresh (unripened) cheeses include Cottage cheese, Cream cheese and Ricotta cheese.

Ripened cheese is classified into three sub-types- Soft cheese, Hard cheese, and Blue cheese according to the texture. Soft cheeses such as feta, Brie and Camembert, have been ripened for a short time. Hard cheeses are ripened for various lengths of time and range from semi-hard to hard. They include Cheddar, Gouda, Muenster, Parmesan and Romano. Blue cheeses are ripened by green moulds and include Gorgonzola, Roquefort and Stilton.

Robert: I told you to throw the girl out. You have fifty armed soldiers and dozens of strong servants to carry out my orders .Are they afraid of her?

Steward: No sir, we are afraid of you, but she puts courage in us. She really doesn't seem to be afraid of anything . Perhaps you could frighten her, sir.

Robert: (grimly) Perhaps, where is she now?

Steward: Down in the Courtyard, sir.

(Robert goes to the window and ask the soldiers to send the girl up) (The girl enters. She is a well built strong country girl of 17 to 18 years. The squire's glare neither frightens her nor stops her. She speaks confidently.)

Joan: Good morning captain squire. You are to give me a horse and armour and some soldiers, and send me to the Dauphin.

Robert: The girl is mad. Why didn't you tell me so you blockhead?

Steward: Sir ,do not anger her .Give her what she wants.

Robert: I shall send you back to your father with orders to put you under lock and key.

Joan: you think you will , squire. But it won't happen that way .You said you not see me. But here I am.

Robert: So you are assuming that I'll give you what you want.

Joan: Yes, squire. (Continues busily) a horse will cost sixteen francs. It is a big amount of money. But I can save it on the armour I don't need beautiful armour made to my measure.
